

Sue Ryder

Sue Ryder Bespoke UK Challenge

Make a real difference to the lives of people living with incurable illness

Conquer Hadrian's Wall

27-29th April 2012

Registration Fee: £80 / Fundraising Target: £500

The Sue Ryder Best of Hadrian's Wall Trek is back for a second year in April 2012

After the huge success of the last trek which raised over £30,000, Sue Ryder once again is searching for valiant gladiatorial walkers to tackle the Best of Hadrian's Wall in a weekend.

This guided fully supported walk takes in the highlights of Hadrian's Wall offering a good physical challenge to brave hearted individuals with the fantastic reward of some of the finest views and best preserved sections of the wall.

Join Sue Ryder's army of walkers from 27 to 29 April 2012 and make a big difference to the lives of people living with long-term and life-threatening illnesses.

All the money raised will support health and social care charity Sue Ryder to provide end of life and long-term care to people living with complex care and support needs including cancer, dementia, Multiple Sclerosis and acquired brain injury.

For one epic adventure in just one weekend
